Other Activities you might be interested in:

Visit The Alamo and other popular San Antonio sights such as the Spanish Governor's Place, Market Square – always a favorite for souvenirs and other shopping, the San Antonio River Walk – more food than anyone can eat and even more shopping.

Golf is always popular with many courses around town for all skill levels.

Also happening on the 7th is the annual San Antonio Air Show. Each year the show is held at one of the Air Force Bases near the city and this year it is being held at Randolph AFB. The show and parking is free and will include many aircraft on static display as well as flight demonstrations, most years include a visit from one of the aerial demonstration teams like the Thunderbirds. If anyone is interested in going, Randolph is about a 20- 30 minute drive from downtown and you should plan on a lot of walking.
